ROLLER GRILL

A convenience store staple, the roller grill is the workhorse of a c-store operation. An estimated 87% of c-stores already have a roller grill, and roller grill items are most likely to be purchased as a snack (64%), followed by lunch (57%).² Aside from pizza, consumers are more likely to purchase a hot dog than any other c-store prepared food item, and 21% indicated they purchased a hot dog on their last c-store visit.³ Smithfield offers the variety of roller grill products to satisfy your customers' cravings.
